

I would like to request the commission to please reject the broadcast flag proposal in order to preserve my and other consumer's rights to record digital television for personal use. I watch very little television at the time of broadcast, but instead record for later viewing. Please do not allow the prevention of this with digital broadcast.

We early adopters of digital television already face enough uncertainty as the technology advances. Please do not place another road block in front of us with the broadcast-flag.